

NATIVE AMERICAN & INDIGENOUS STUDIES SYMPOSIUM 2022

Museums, Archives, Preservation, and Representation in the Northeast

Five College NAIS Symposium 2022

Last 2022 Regional Gathering of the Native American and Indigenous Studies Association (NAISA)

Thursday, September 22
Opening reception & "Considering Indigeneity" exhibit | 5:30-7pm

Mount Holyoke College Art Museum
Wampanoag cuisine by Sly Fox Den

Friday, September 23
Symposium | 9am-5pm
UMass Hotel
Amherst, Massachusetts

Panels, Roundtables, Keynote Address, Mentoring Meetings, and Social Connections

Friday, September 23
Closing Performance
7pm | Smith College

Jennifer Kreisberg, is Tuscarora (North Carolina) and member of the critically acclaimed Native women's Trio Ulali

Registration for each event is required.

Keynote speaker: Taino Chief Jorge Estevez
Veteran museum educator and leader of Grupo Higuayagua, which organizes Native families and individuals, recovers Indigenous cultural practices.

Closing Performance by Jennifer Kreisberg

Jennifer comes from four generations of Seven Singing Sisters through the maternal line. She is known for fierce vocals, soaring range and lilting, breath-taking harmonies.

For additional information and registration, please visit the NAISA website or use the QR code.

This event is made possible with support from the Mellon Foundation.